

Indy Grand Prix @ the Nat

March 29 - 31

Be there!

From March 29 - 31, the Indiana University Natatorium in Indianapolis will be the home of the 2012 Indy Grand Prix @ the Nat featuring approximately 800 of the most elite swimmers in the United States. Teams expected to attend include North Baltimore Aquatic Club, SwimMAC Carolina, Fullerton (CA) Aquatics Sports Team, University of Florida, Gator Swim Club, and the Colorado Starz. Of course, we are hoping that many of our own accomplished Indiana swimmers will be competing too. This event will be one of the last major competitions before Olympic Trials in Omaha in June and should provide an exciting fan experience for Indiana Swimming families. Some are saying this will be the last Indianapolis stop for many of swimming's biggest stars - something you don't want to miss when it's in our own back yard.

Indiana Swimming and the IU Natatorium are co-hosting this event and would like to invite every Indiana Swimming family to either begin or end spring break by coming to Indy to witness some amazing swimming. Many options to become engaged in the event are being offered only to Indiana Swimming families; we hope you can join us! Please read below for a description of each of these opportunities.
